You've Got A Friend

Carole King/James Taylor

When you're down and troubled And you need a friend, And you're feeling so infected, Call the friend that you depend.

Don't Cry Now, 'Cause I'm Right Here

Winter spring summer or fall, Oh babe, don't you know that, I'll come running to see you again. And you know wherever I am You just call out my name, And soon I will be knocking upon your door. And that old north wind should begin to blow

The old wind should begin to blow

If the sky above you should turn dark and full of clouds If the sky above you should turn dark and full of clouds

It's good to know you've got a friend. It's good to know you've got a friend. It's good to know you've got a friend.

We need a friend, We need a friend, We need a friend.

You've got a friend, You've got a friend, You've got a friend.

Lord, I'll be there, yes I will. Hey now, all you've got to do is call Winter spring summer or fall, Hey now, all you've got to do is call Winter spring summer or fall

Keep your head together and call my name Keep your head together and call my name

To brighten up even your darkest nights. To brighten up even your darkest nights.
